

The Texas General Land Office ARCHIVES

Home to the History of Texas Land

The Texas General Land Office Archives contains over 35 million hand-drafted maps and documents, some dating back to Spanish rule. These are resources of substantial historical value, and because they belong to the people of Texas, they can be accessed by anyone free of charge.

Why Visit?

- ★ Conduct research using primary source materials.
- ★ Find your ancestor's name! Discover hand-written documents and evidence of military service or settlement in Texas.
- ★ Schedule a complimentary tour. Please schedule in advance and inform the staff about any particular interest for a unique experience.

How Can You Help?

Many documents in the Archives are crumbling due to age and use. With no state appropriation for their conservation, Save Texas History™ is working to raise private funds for their protection. The future of these documents depends on your support.

- ★ Buy a map reproduction.
- ★ Conserve a map or document in honor of a loved one.
- ★ Make a financial donation.
